HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Lyle Oaks saw a bob cat in his father's pasture in Athens a few days ago.

It is estimated that 18,000 barrels of apples will be marketed from Isle La Motte this season.

Rev. P. A. Smith resigned last Sunday as pastor of the Union church in Westford, his resignation to take effect Nov. 1.

Among the voters at the primary in Barton were Reuben Christie, who, in his 91st year, walked three miles in order to vote, and Augustus French, who is 87 years old.

Justin Dix of Centerville has invented a machine for playing the piano with the feet and while using it himself also plays the violin. Mr. Dix has shown his device at various fairs.

From the place in Castleton termed "The Old Homestead," has been gathered this fall a pumpkin which weighed 63 pounds, and on the same vine is one which weighs 36 pounds.

Joseph A. Dennison of Boston, the attorney who was recently lost in the woods at Dixville, N. H., with his wife, studied law some years ago in the office of T. W. Moloney of Rutland.

Rev. G. C. Chappell tendered his resignation last Sunday as pastor of the First Baptist church of Bristol, to take effect the last of October. He has a position as instructor in Yale university.

A big auto truck loaded with furniture, consigned from a Massachusetts firm to parties in Burlington, became caught in a bridge in Shelburne Monday and delayed traffic an hour and a half.

While running to catch a trolley car at West Rutland Saturday, Miss Monica Collins suffered a fracture of one of the bones of her left leg near the ankle. Her foot doubled under her as she ran, causing the accident.

Genevieve and Cecelia Bliss of West Rutland, aged 13 and 11 years, respectively, were awarded 17 premiums in the boys' and girls' department of Rutland fair this year. The prizes were on sewing, cooking, canned goods and essays.

Twenty cans of steelhead trout fingerlings are to be placed in the West river above the West Munster dam, and more will be planted there later. The steelheads, under favorable conditions, often reach a weight of 10 to 12 pounds.

When Mrs. Charles W. Buswell leaned against the railing of the piazza porch on the second story of her home in Rutland Saturday, it gave way and let her fall to the ground. No bones were broken, but she was badly shaken up and bruised.

Nathan F. Smith grew in his cornfield in Bennington a freak this season, consisting of a cluster of ten ears of field corn all growing from a single head like a bunch of grapes. The center ear was fully developed, but the other nine were not.

On the occasion of his 70th birthday anniversary, Rev. Alfred J. Hough was presented a traveling bag at his home in Lebanon, N. H., by his children. For more than half a century Mr. Hough was a member of the Vermont Methodist conference and only recently moved to Lebanon.

The grill at the Hotel Bardwell in Rutland has been closed by order of the license commissioners and no more liquor can be served in that section of the hotel, which also has a first-class license. It is said that numerous reports of infringement of the law are the reason for the closing order.

The engagement is announced of LeRoy Harpham of Quincy, Mich., formerly vice-president of the E. & T. Fairbanks company of St. Johnsbury, and Miss Shirlee Beatrice Wheeler, an American opera singer, at present appearing in this country with the Chicago-Philadelphia Opera company. Miss Wheeler studied in Italy, sang for two seasons at the San Carlo opera house, Naples, and later at the Conzatti theatre, Rome.

MOTHER'S PROTEST FAULTS.
Young Man, Just Out of Vermont Jail, Sentenced Again.
Fitchburg, Mass., Sept. 28.—With tears in her eyes and her voice shaken with grief, Mrs. Mary O'Neil of Wakefield pleaded with Judge Thomas F. Gallagher for the release of her son, who was before the court charged with uttering a forged check for $124 in this city a year or so ago. The young man pleaded guilty and despite the mother's plea was sentenced to jail for three months. When he is released there is another warrant waiting for him charging larceny of a violin in Leominster. O'Neil was arrested last Saturday as he stepped from the jail at Rutland, Vt., by Inspector B. H. Flaherty of the local police. O'Neil had just completed ten months in the Vermont jail.

To the Voters in Orange County.
Having been notified by the county clerk that, at a primary election held Sept. 12, 1916, I was nominated for the office of senator by the Republican party, I hereby express my appreciation of the honor you have conferred upon me and I thank you for the same. I accept the nomination and, if elected, I will serve you to the best of my ability.
Charles H. Bigelow,
Brookfield, Vt., Sept. 25, 1916.
